As honeymooners are taking an extra special holiday, they can also indulge in the tour operators NEW selection of comfort class safaris. Offering a little more privacy, the accommodation is based in charming hotels, lodges and tented camps; the latter based in walk in tents made just for two, complete with verandahs for that "Out of Africa" appeal.

Africa's Venice, In Style: Botswana has long been one of the best-kept secrets in Africa with its unspoiled savannas, traditional villages and fertile wetlands. Botswana In Depth, a NEW comfort class safari, covering the "Jewel of Africa," includes memorable experiences that will stand the test of time, as honeymooners can indulge in game driving at the Khama Rhino Sanctuary and water based safaris in the Okavango Delta; lovers being poled through the maze of channels by their African Gondolier. Intimacy is assured with tented camping on remote wilderness islands, before heading onto the Moremi Game Reserve and the Chobe National Park, a spot which exudes romance by day and by night – honeymooners being invited to take a sunset cruise to view the elephants. A two-night stay in Zambia's action packed Livingstone is also included in the tour. The 14-day comfort class safari costs £1,445pp + local payment FROM £152pp. Departures year round.

Swoon-inducing African sights: The 18-Day Mountain Gorillas to the Mara itinerary takes adventurers to some of the most romantic sights in the world. Couples will be dazzled by the groups of fuchsia-pink flamingoes gathered at Lake Nakuru, love struck by the breath-taking views they encounter at Lake Bunyoni and smitten with the swaying grasslands of the Masai Mara Game Reserve. The opportunity to share a once in a lifetime experience is heaven sent, as honeymooners will have a one-hour audience with the Silverback and his band, in the Bwindi Impenetrable National Park. The overland tour costs £625pp + local payment FROM £330pp + gorilla permit of £275pp. Departures year round.

Get your heart racing: The Kruger & Adrenaline itinerary offers exciting opportunities to go wild, ensuring newly weds start their married life on a high. Including regular doses of adrenaline-pumping activity, the small group safari, incorporates white-water rafting on the Zambezi with its challenging grade five rapids, abseiling down the rock face of Bakota Gorge and swinging like Tarzan (or Jane) on the 425 metre zip line. Spell binding locations are bound to inspire honeymooners, whether they are game driving in the Kruger or sipping sundowners by the pool. The 7-day small group safari costs £595pp, year round departures.
